MEDIA RELEASE

Leave your inhibitions at the door or you will surely be offended by something during this performance. There is no nudity but all internal morals completely disappear when Erotic Hypnotist Will Power performs in The Funny Stop Comedy Club's showroom.

Will Power's show is outrageously energetic, raw and totally hilarious. It's over the top, uncensored and adults-only with good, clean, naughty fun.

After he puts his volunteers on stage into a hypnotic trance, they run wild with their imaginations, creativity and let their hair hang down to the delight of the audience.

We're talking huge erotic fun. Obviously, it's too crazy and explicit for print here. It is an absolutely loud and rocking good time as party people express their affections to adult humor like never before. Will Power's web site is <http://www.funnybone.net>

BIO

Greg Steele aka: Will Power, the erotic hypnotist, has featured all aspects of entertainment in his 25+ year career from close-up to full stage headline entertainer. In addition to his erotic act he works as a clean act while being a full-time corporate, college entertainer. His comedy talents include: MC, stage hypnotist, magician and comedy mentalist.

He is also a 12 year veteran as an actor and motivational performer for a major corporation and is truly an outstanding showman. He has natural ability to captivate an audience not only with his skills but with his charm as well.

An award winning comedy performer who has honed years of experience working clubs, hotels, casinos, colleges, conventions, and other corporate events all across the country.
